The Lead Up

Twenty20 cricket began around the cricket world in the early years of this century. Initially a six-team state-based competition was set-up in Australia. In the 2011-12 season the city franchise-based tournament, The Big Bash League (BBL), was established. The BBL comprised eight teams including two from both Melbourne and Sydney. In the 2011-12 tournament (BBL01) each team played the seven others once (28 matches) followed by two semi-finals and a final which was won by the Sydney Sixers. In the second season each team played six others once and one twice (32 matches) followed by the finals. This allowed both Melbourne and Sydney to introduce the "local derby" with a resulting boost in attendances. In following seasons, the number of home-and-away matches increased and all teams have played each other twice (56 matches) starting in 2017-18. From the 2019-20 season the existing finals format was replaced by a five-team final series; the operation of which is explained below under Finals BBL11.

Notes:

3 points are awarded for a win, 1.5 to each team for a tie, no result or abandoned match.

A bonus point is awarded halfway through the second innings of a match. The team chasing is awarded the point if it is above the equivalent 10-over score of the opposition. If it is trailing the fielding side will be awarded the point.

AT signifies a match abandoned without a ball being bowled but with the toss being made (1.5 points to each team).

The adjustment to Perth Scorchers' total points is in respect of an ineligible player being played against Adelaide Strikers on 14 January, 2022.

Net run rate is calculated by deducting from the average runs per over scored by a team in the tournament, the average runs per over scored against it.
