Important Information

- Please note that members of overseas reciprocal clubs will have complimentary entry entitlements into the MCC Members Reserve for all matches of the 2019 AFL home and away football season. Members will be issued a pass that will allow them access to all areas in the Reserve, including the Long Room, subject to appropriate dress standards being met (i.e. jacket and tie for gentlemen and equivalent standard for women).
- Only Full members of affiliated reciprocal clubs/venues will have entry entitlements. Associate, guest and corporate memberships have no access rights.
- Members must produce their Full membership card, a Letter of Introduction from their club, as well as identification confirming their residency outside Australia before any reciprocal access or sale of visitor tickets will proceed.
- Overseas reciprocal members will also have the benefit of introducing guests into the MCC Reserve by purchasing daily visitor tickets (subject to availability). These tickets will be available under the same conditions as for MCC members. For the 2019 AFL home and away matches the limit per member is four visitor tickets per game except Anzac Day (April 25th) where the limit is two.
- Reciprocal members' guests have access to unreserved seating on levels 1 and 4 of the MCC Members Reserve only. - You are encouraged to pre-arrange your passes and tickets to avoid disappointment. Please note that visitor tickets for some major matches may sell out well in advance of the match day.
- The MCC reserves the right to discontinue the allocation and sale of reciprocal and visitor tickets for any match. Under no circumstances will a visitor ticket be sold to a reciprocal member's guest if they are not available to MCC members at the time
